Stewards Message:

On 13 February 2020, the Queensland Racing Integrity Commission, an independent statutory body which oversees the integrity and welfare standards of racing animals and racing industry participants in Queensland, confirmed the presence of a Gastroenteritis outbreak in greyhounds in South East Queensland.

Although no confirmed NT cases have been reported, three greyhounds, from Mr Russell Savige kennels, presented with symptoms similar to Gastroenteritis. The Trainer withdrew the three ill greyhounds, determined to withdraw his remaining greyhounds housed within his kennel from Sunday nights race, and in effect voluntarily quarantining his kennels.

A separate trainer also determined to withdraw her dogs as a precautionary measure, none displayed any symptoms or illness. This resulted in a total of 22 dogs withdrawn from Sunday's race, but only 3 due to illness.

An inspection of Mr Savige's kennels were carried out by the race day veterinarian and no visible signs of illness was detected on the night.
